

- Q-1 - Create application which create one Service named Arithmetic, which contain two methods as Add and Sub.
- Create Demo component which uses Arithmetic Service using Dependency injection.
  - Perform both method in Demo Component and Display result.

Q-2 - Create an Angular Application which contain two service named as Number and String.

- Number has ChkPrime method and String has CountCapital method.
- Create two component, and use Number service in one component and String in another component using Dependency injection.
- Call both methods from respective component and display result.

- Q-3 - Create an Angular Application which contain two service named as Number and String.
- Number has ChkPrime method and String has CountCapital method.
  - Create one child component, and use Number service and String in component using Dependency injection.
  - Call both methods child component and display result.

